Bellisario's has been a staple in the Del Mar community for over 30 years.

In 2000, "The Bailey Boys"; Justin, Michael, Brandon and Ashton, with their mom Carol and step-dad Andrew, took over ownership. You can tell they are die-hard New Yorkers as soon as you cross the threshold. The walls are lined with Yankee jerseys. On any given day no matter what sports season we are in, the conversation is centered around games lost or won, bad calls at the plate, trades and winning championships.

Carol has introduced family recipes handed down through generations of her Italian heritage. Some favorites are her grandmother's recipe for meatballs and her mom's chicken and peppers.

Hailing from New York, Bellisario's is the closest you'll find to the "Big Apple". The rotisserie chicken is their pride and joy, crispy on the outside, tender on the inside. The family's goal has been to make dining at Bellisario's an extension of their home.

We would like to say,
"Thank you for your patronage."

Since 1994, Shipyard Brewing Company has been brewing fine quality products with a wide range of style profiles.

We use only top quality ingredients and pride ourselves on the consistency and freshness of our products.

All our beer is hand crafted from recipes developed by master brewer Alan Pugsley, who is one of the most influential people in the craft brewing movement in North America.

Shipyard first began in 1992 at Federal Jack's Restaurant and Brew Pub in Kennebunk, which is one of Maine's original brew pubs and working breweries. Within two years, demand for Shipyard beer outpaced the small operation and, in April 1994, Forsley and Pugsley opened the Shipyard Brewing Company in the heart of the waterfront in Portland, Maine.

Shipyard is currently available in 35+ states around the country and markets for our freshly brewed, hand-crafted beers continue to expand.
